

Recognition of Excellence Awards

Recognition of Excellence Awards will recognize ACFP members who, in the past 12-24 months, have made an outstanding contribution in a specific area pertaining to one or more of the following areas: Patient Care, Community Service, Hospital or Health Care Institutions, College Activities (National or Chapter), Teaching, Research, and other elements of the academic discipline of Family Medicine.

Examples of outstanding contributions may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Significant humanitarian work on a global basis
- Establishment of a training program in an area such as family violence
- Delivery of an educational program unique to the needs of a population at risk
- Excellence in clinical practice to disadvantaged communities, such as inner cities
- Leadership in primary care renewal projects, hospital, regional health care programs etc.
- Development of an innovative research project or program that contributes to the improvement of day-to-day clinical practice

The Alberta College of Family Physicians will recognize Recognition of Excellence Awards recipients at the upcoming Annual Scientific Assembly. Family physician award recipients will also be recognized at the upcoming CFPC Family Medicine Forum.
